Grand Royal Arch Chapter.

1860.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The Annual Meeting of the M.E. Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Massachusetts, was held at Freemason's Hall, Boston, on Tuesday, 11th September, A. D. 1860, R. A. M. 2390.

The Grand Chapter was opened in ample form at nine o'clock, A. M., by M.E. James Kimball, Grand High Priest. The lecture of the Mark degree was given by his direction, when the Grand Chapter was called from labor to refreshment for the space of one hour.

At 3 P. M., the Grand Chapter was called from refreshment to labor; the lectures of the Royal Arch and Most Excellent Master's degrees were given. Called from labor to refreshment again until 7 o'clock, P. M., when the Grand Chapter resumed its labors.

PRESENT:

M.E. JAMES KIMBALL, . .	Grand High Priest.
M.E. WYZEMAN MARSHALL, .	Deputy Grand High Priest.
Comp. CHARLES C. DAME, . .	Gr. Captain of Host, p. t.
" PETER C. JONES, . .	Grand Treasurer.
" THOMAS WATERMAN, .	Grand Secretary.

Permanent Members.

JOHN R. BRADFORD,	EBENEZER W. TOLMAN,
SAMUEL MILLARD,	JAMES W. CROOKS,
JOHN MCCLELLAN,	WILLIAM PARKMAN,
ABRAHAM A. DAME,	ISAAC P. SEAVEY.

The following Chapters were represented, viz:—St. Andrew's, King Cyrus, Washington, Morning Star, St. Paul's, Mount Zion, Thomas, Worcester, Northampton, Concord, and Orient.

M.E. Grand High Priest submitted the following statement of his doings the past Masonic year:—

To the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Massachusetts:

COMPANIONS,—Having assembled for the transaction of the annual business of the Grand Chapter, it becomes my duty to submit to you a brief statement of the doings of the Grand Council for the past Masonic year.

In accordance with a vote of the Grand Chapter, I commissioned the Senior Grand Lecturer, Edward P. Graves, to visit the Chapters working under dispensation, at Pittsfield and Enfield, and report to me when ready for consecration.

See Documents marked A. and B.

On the 22d of March, accompanied by M.E. Wyzeman Marshall, Deputy Grand High Priest, and M.E. Comps. Edward P. Graves, and Wm. L. Batchelder, Senior and Junior Grand Lecturers, I proceeded to Pittsfield and instituted Berkshire Royal Arch Chapter and installed its officers.

From the location of this Chapter in the extreme western part of the Commonwealth, and from the true Masonic character of the brethren in this locality, I feel assured that the influence of this Chapter will be exerted for the moral advancement of our time-honored Institution.

On the 14th of June, accompanied by the same delegation, I proceeded to Enfield and instituted King Solomon's Chapter and nstalled its officers.

From the situation of this Chapter, in the midst of several flourishing Lodges in the neighboring towns, and from the standing of its members in that community, there is every reason for believing that their labor will be crowned with complete success.

Dispensations have been granted to Northampton Chapter and to the Chapter of the Shekinah for the conferring of degrees in cases of emergency.

Under date of the 14th of July, I received from the Grand Secretary the communication marked C, to which I returned the following answer:—

To Comp. EDW'D DANIELS, Committee of Northampton Chapter.

In answer to the interrogatories in your communication of the 13th inst., I would say: That it is not in order for a Masonic Lodge or Chapter to vote to adjourn; neither is there any analogy between regular meetings for Masonic purposes, or "Town meetings," the former being governed by Masonic, the latter by conventional usage.

If there were a sufficient number present to open your Lodge or Chapter, and it was thought expedient to defer the transaction of the business to a day earlier than your next regular meeting, the High Priest has authority to call off your Chapter to such time as would be most convenient. It would be in order to transact the regular business at a meeting so called, for it would be a continuance of the former meeting; but notice should always be given as required by your By-Laws. Should there not be a sufficient number present to open, the Master or High Priest has authority to call a special meeting, if he deems it necessary. "The Master alone has the right to convoke the Lodge, even for special meetings."—(Ancient usage.) "The Charter is committed to the especial care of the High Priest. He has the right and authority of calling his Chapter at pleasure, upon any emergency, or occurrence, which, in his judgment, may require their meeting."—(Article 2d, Sect. 3d, Constitution General Grand Chapter, U. S. A.)

When Special Meetings are called, the practice is to state the object on the notifications.

Truly and fraternally yours,

JAMES KIMBALL, Grand High Priest.

It gives me pleasure to say there have been no questions of disagreement among the Chapters during the past year; but that the great principles of harmony and brotherly love, that underlie our institution, have prevailed.

Whole number of Chapters under the jurisdiction	21

I have not visited, officially, any Chapter during the year. There being some slight disagreement in our lectures, I preferred omitting this duty altogether, rather than introduce a change which might be considered a matter of opinion instead of the perfect work of this Grand Chapter.

I trust that the time is not far distant when these minor differences will be reconciled.

To M.E. Edward P. Graves, Senior Grand Lecturer of the Grand Chapter of Massachusetts:

You are hereby appointed and empowered to examine the By-Laws and Records of the Chapters of Royal Arch Masons at Pittsfield and Enfield, both of which are now working under dispensation, and ascertain if they are in conformity with the requirements of the Grand Chapter of Massachusetts.

You will also inform yourself of the competency of their officers to confer the several degrees appertaining to Royal Arch Masonry, agreeably to the mode of Work and Lectures as approved by this Grand Chapter, and make report thereon previous to consecration of said Chapters.

JAMES KIMBALL, Grand High Priest of the Grand R. A. Chapter of Massachusetts.

To M.E. James Kimball, Grand High Priest of the Grand R. A. Chapter of Massachusetts:

Dear Sir and M.E. Companion,—In accordance with your appointment I visited Berkshire R. A. Chapter, working under dispensation at Pittsfield, Mass., and witnessed their work in the several degrees; the system of work pursued by them is that sanctioned by the Grand Chapter of this Commonwealth.

The officers are well qualified to discharge their respective duties, and those who have been exalted as Royal Arch Masons, are men of much promise. I therefore recommend that they be consecrated under a Charter.

To M.E. James Kimball, Grand High Priest of the Grand R. A. Chapter of Massachusetts:

Dear Sir and M.E. Companion,—Agreeably to your order I repaired to Enfield, Mass., on the 27th of April, and examined the Records of King Solomon's R. A. Chapter, working under a dispensation, and found them correct. I also witnessed their work in the several degrees, and found it in accordance with that sanctioned by the Grand Chapter of this Commonwealth.

The companions at Enfield labor under the disadvantage of living very remote from each other, but, altogether, they have done remarkably well. They have exalted quite a number of the best men, and I have no doubt that before long they will constitute one of the best Chapters. I therefore cheerfully recommend that they be consecrated and their officers installed under a Charter.

Northampton, July 13, 1860.

To the Grand Secretary of the Grand R. A. Chapter of Mass.:

Dear Sir,—Northampton Chapter has directed the undersigned to respectfully ask from you information as to the proper course to be taken under the following circumstances, viz:—

Our By-Laws require meetings to be held on the first Wednesday of each month. Our last regular meeting occurred on the 4th of July; few being present, it was Voted, "That this meeting stand adjourned to Wednesday evening of next week, at which time such business may be transacted as might properly have come before the meeting this evening."

Was that a proper vote to pass? And would the business assigned for a regular meeting, (such as approving records, receiving and acting on applications for membership, &c.,) have been in order at such adjourned meeting?

In what respect do adjournments of stated Chapter meetings differ from adjournments of other meetings; town meetings for instance? If we are mistaken in supposing you are the proper officer to address upon this subject, will you be so good as to forward this to the proper correspondent upon such matters and greatly oblige,

Fraternally and respectfully yours,

EDWARD DANIELS, One of the Committee of Northampton Chapter for the first named purpose.
